Revue de presse

'Looks at the early days of urban fashion through the lens of the pioneering group of artists. By adapting their graffiti skills from spraying trains to shirts they created a new look for a new and vibrant generation. At the same time they were laying down the ground work for the hugely successful streetwear industry today.'

Sabotage Times

'The Shirt Kings' whimsical custom-made T-shirts were snapped up by just about every early hip hopper you'd care to name.' Red Bull Music Academy

'In a genius move founder Edwin PHADE Scasa and his crew transported the iconic graffiti from New York's subways onto sweats and tees that had the likes of LL Cool J, Slick Rick, Big Daddy Kane and Iron Mike placing their orders. This dope document provides a well timed reminder of the vibe around hip-hop's golden era when things were more Wil E. Coyote than Will.i.a.m.' Proper Mag

'From DJ Red Alert to LL Cool J to Big Daddy Kane to Mike Tyson they all had to have their Shirt Kings designs. Shirt Kings Pioneers Of Hip Hop Fashion chronicles the art, the styles, and the people who where loyal supporters of the Shirt Kings.' --The Source Présentation de l'éditeur

Shirt Kings looks at the early days of urban fashion through the lens of the pioneering group of artists known as the Shirt Kings. By adapting the graffiti skills from the trains and spray cans to shirts and airbrush they created a new look for a new generation. Edwin PHADE Sacasa is a founding artist of the group and it is through his archives that we are transported to the 1980s in NYC where the fashion was loud, colourful and filled with cartoon imagery. From DJ Red Alert to LL Cool J to Big Daddy Kane to Mike Tyson - they all had to have their Shirt King designs.
